

“FREEDOM FROM FEES” Holiday Inn in the Walt Disney World® Resort Gives Families More of What They Want and No Hidden Fees

ORLANDO, FL --- (April 27, 2011) “We call it the ‘Freedom from Fees’ package, with an emphasis on free,” says Anthony Johnson, regional director of operations and general manager of the Holiday Inn in the Walt Disney World® Resort, a one year old property that sits squarely in the center of Orlando’s tourism corridor and within walking distance of Downtown Disney, restaurants and shops.

Nearly 50 million visitors will visit Orlando this year, with many coming between May and September, according to the updated forecast from the research firm Tourism Economics. And with this wave of visitors will be many searching for value to go along with their fun in the sun.

“I don’t like hidden fees when I travel on business or with my family and I don’t want our guests to experience anything but fun and great service when they are here,” said Johnson who opened this new 323-room resort in February of 2010.

Guests who choose the ‘Freedom from Fees’ package at the Holiday Inn in the Walt Disney World® Resort with a two-night or more stay, from May 4th through October 6th receive:

- No resort fees and free parking
- Free breakfast daily for two adults
- Kids (under the age of 12) get free breakfast, lunch and dinner, every day.
- In the spacious and modern rooms guests receive free coffee, free HD DirecTV, free local and 800# calls, free wi-fi internet connections, free safe big enough for a 17” laptop and a free mini refrigerator.
- Walt Disney World® amenities include free shuttles to the theme parks every 30 minutes, advance reservations at restaurants and the legendary Disney character breakfasts, preferred tee times at Walt Disney World golf courses
- Free delivery of guest purchases at Disney attractions back to the hotel.

“We call it the ‘Freedom from Fees’ package, with an emphasis on free,” says Anthony Johnson, regional director of operations and general manager of the Holiday Inn in the Walt Disney World® Resort, a one year old resort in Orlando with rates starting at $99 per night.

“In just our first year we have been honored by quickly achieving a top popularity ranking on Trip Advisor and have a consistent 4 ½ star rating. We are equally proud of the guest reviews and recommendations to other travelers,” said Johnson.

“As a General Manager one of my proudest moments came recently when our colleagues at Walt Disney World told me our resort achieved the highest score on our most recent Disney inspection; higher than any hotel in the history of the inspection process. Our team’s attention to every detail is what makes this property a favorite and we hope our guests stay with us again and again, for years and years to come.”

Rates start at $99 and these free amenities apply to all room types of the package on all dates from May 4th through October 6th, 2011. Priority Club Points will be given.
